

Anthem Unmind

I remember the way, how we first met
I remember the feeling when we shared you bed
Shied away and closed off embarrassed to touch
A childlike feeling, I dislike so much

And even though your heartshaped door
Won't let me go, trapped in your soul
I'd like to show just how it goes
When you let go, just how we'd flow
And even though I'd wish we'd show
Each other how we could grow
I'd like to roam around your home
Make it my own, forever more

Oh, I don't know how to unwind
Oh, I don't know how to un-mind

A language unknown, unheard of before
An unspoken feeling, crawled up from our core
Took some time to adjust, I could feel you watch
A childlike feeling, I longed for so much

And even though your hard shaped words
Wont let me go, trapped in my soul

I'd like to know, just how and so

I've hurt you so like no one before

And even though you can't enjoy

My warmth and glow

Blue eyes, stone cold

I'd like to row our lake house boat out to the shore before the storm

Oh, I don't know how to redefine

Oh, I don't know how to reunite
